“You will find as you reflect back on your life that the moments in which you have really lived are those in which you were surrounded by friends.”

"A smile happens in a flash, but its memory lasts a lifetime."

"Good times come, and good times go, but memories last a lifetime."

"Never before have we had so little time in which to do so much."

"We came this way less than we are today. We have acquired new ideas, new ways of acting, thinking, being. We have learned, and we have grown."

"Truly great friends are hard to find, harder to leave, and impossible to forget."

TOP 20 REASONS TO GO TO NHS

- The plethora of announcements
- The electronic board in the Caf
- Otis Spunkmeyer cookies
- Oldest high school rivalry
- Mr. Fuchs' prom story
- Weekly homeroom breakfasts
- The crazy heating system
- Bounty for Juniors in the Upper Lot
- Pleasant smell in boys' locker room
- Powder Puff
- Lots of international flags in Caf
- McGuane's rating system
- Pasta Day
- The rescue buttons on the ramps
- Hiking up The Hill
- Beyond the Oracle
- Finding your true love through Data Match
- Mr. Kazarian's movies
- Carrying the big red "I'm going to the bathroom" pass

"People come, people go. Some leave footprints in the snow."

But in the end, you will find some leave footprints in your mind."

Senioritis is . . .

- Getting Football jerseys
- Being late every day
- second term = last term
- 221485
- Cutting the whole lunch line
- Going to college meetings to get out of class
- Getting to know your mailman
- Beginning senior slump on the first day of school
- 50 college essay drafts
- Taking the SATs 500 times, hoping for a better score

Current Slang

- Whatever!
- Sketchy
- Keep it on the DL
- Dibs
- Dunk's
- Psyched
- Mad good!
- Sweeeeet!
- like ... like ... like
- Shotgun!
- Wicked
- The Bomb
- It's ALL good

Can You Imagine...?

- Understanding morning announcements
- Actually seeing Mrs. Leland
- Getting an "A" on the AP summer reading test
- Open Campus
- Starting school after sunrise
- Message board being up to date
- Mr. Kazarian not stopping a movie every 5 seconds
- Mr. Sveden staying for an entire class
- Having heat in all the classrooms
- Finding a parking space in the upper lot
- Having food in 3rd lunch

Best Changes in School

- $5 for busting a Junior in the upper lot
- Hyper stripes, Cookies & Cream, Great Whites
- Gourmet Express
- Parking in the fire lane
- New teachers
- Dunkin' Donuts across the street
- Mr. Finn's "chill corner"
- Adam, the new janitor
- Winning the Needham-Wellesley game 4 years in a row

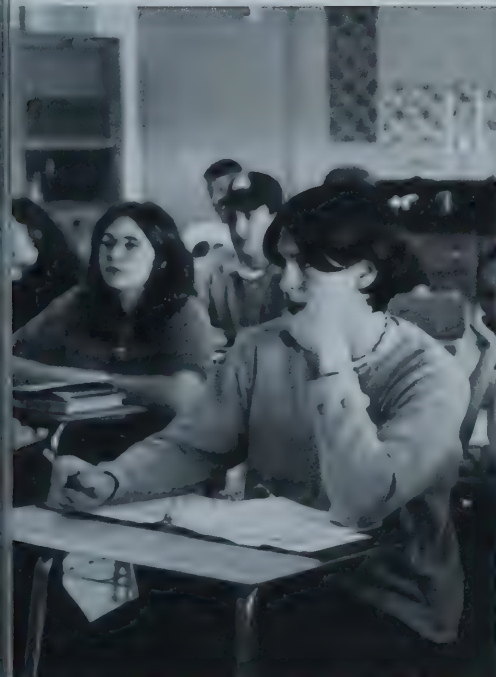

Worst Changes in School

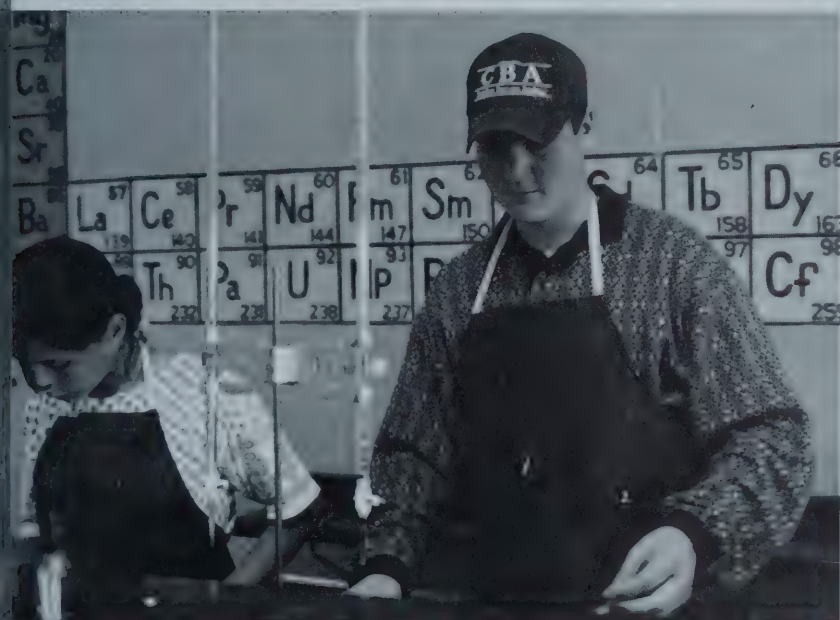

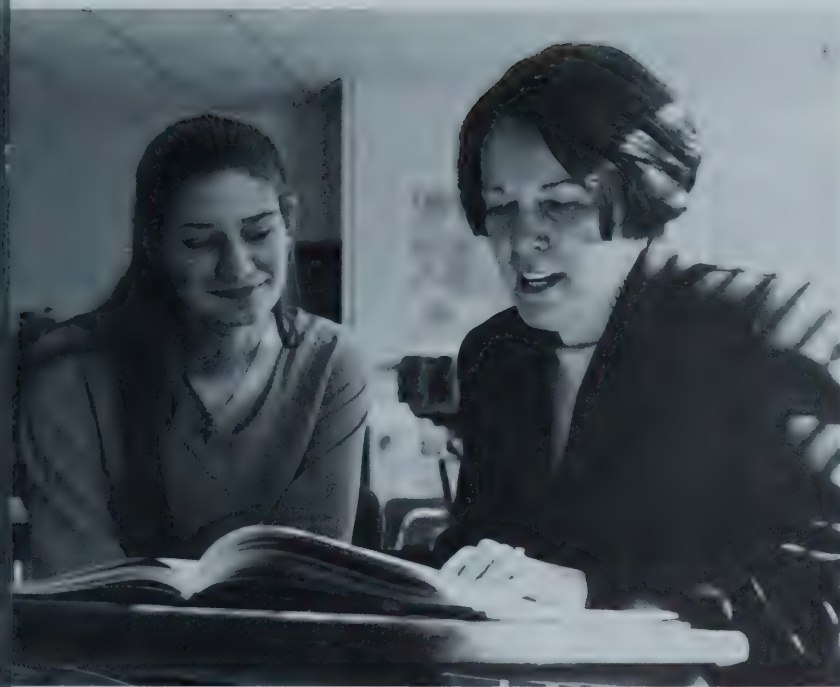

- Time on Learning
- The fat/skinny doors
- No "Loaded Nacho"
- Only seven people to the library, three to the writing lab
- 7:25!
- Salad Bar/Gourmet rotation
- No senior privileges
- Assigned studies
- No snack bar during the day
- Long blocks
- $5 for a locker
- Losing credit for absences

Excuses for Being Late

- "I'm not late, school's early!"
- My car got stuck on a speed bump
- No spaces in the upper lot
- I couldn't make it through the nicotine cloud in the Upper Lot
- The Dunkin' Donuts line was out the door
- I was mesmerized by the electronic message board in the caf
- There was a long line at the punch-in clock
- I had Legal first block
- What, school starts at 7:25?

I trust that this book contains the images, the memories, and the accomplishments of the great class of 1998. I have enjoyed my part in developing them.

- Paul Madden

NHS will miss the class of '98. You were an excellent and unusual class. Good luck and godspeed. Thanks for starting a four year winning streak!

- Roy Johan

The best to you every day in every way.

- Claire Greene

I have great expectations for the Class of '98. They are one of the best classes we have had during my tenure at Needham High School.

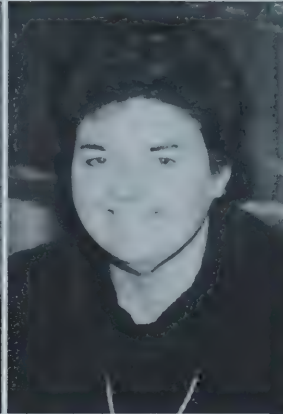

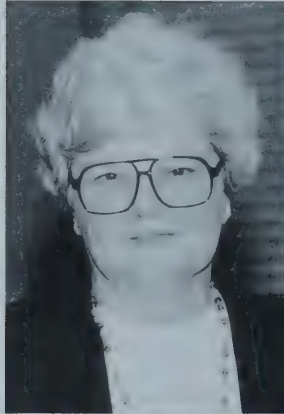

- Peter Fuchs

I love them so much because they were brought up so differently than we.

Retirees

The class of 1998 would like to thank Judith Conron, Marcia Grey, Armand Kazarian, Stephen Shugrue, and Mary Somers for their years of service to Needham High School. Their efforts and commitment have impacted all of our lives, and we greatly appreciate their help and advice. They will not be forgotten.

Judith Conron

Judith Conron has taught chemistry at Needham High School for 23 years. She encourages students, "Don't follow where the path may lead. Go instead where there is no path and leave a path."

Marcia Grey

Marcia Grey has served Needham High School as a math teacher for 38 years. She has especially enjoyed teaching geometry, Q.E.D.

Armand Kazarian

A psychology/sociology and world history teacher, Armand Kazarian has been at Needham High School for 17 years. He thanks his students for helping him keep his mind wide open and for helping him stay young. "A person can't spend his life working with young people and not keep examining and reexamining his thoughts, ideas, and beliefs."

Stephen Shugrue

Stephen Shugrue has been an English teacher at Needham High School for 30 years.

Mary Somers

As a secretary at Needham High School for 13 years, Mary Somers' contributions to the English and Social Studies departments have been deeply appreciated.

In Memory

Dr. Lee Allen
1937 - 1997

During his thirty years of teaching, Dr. Allen touched the lives of many students. Each member of this graduating class will remember Dr. Allen in a different way. Some will remember seeing him sitting in the cafeteria, sipping a Diet Coke and smiling at students as they walked by. Others, who might have gone to him for a schedule change, will remember his office: shelves overflowing with books and a desk cluttered with papers. Some might have gone to him for a recommendation of a good novel to read or for help with a poem or an essay.

Some students, fortunate enough to have had Dr. Allen as a teacher, have memories different from those students who only knew him in passing. These students will remember his creative approach to teaching, his jokes, and his soft yellow duck, who acted as the class mascot. These students will remember the times when he would sit back and read children's stories, always remembering to show the pictures. Although Dr. Allen has impacted us in many different ways, his life will be an inspiration, and his strength and his compassion will never be forgotten.

- Beth Garabedian

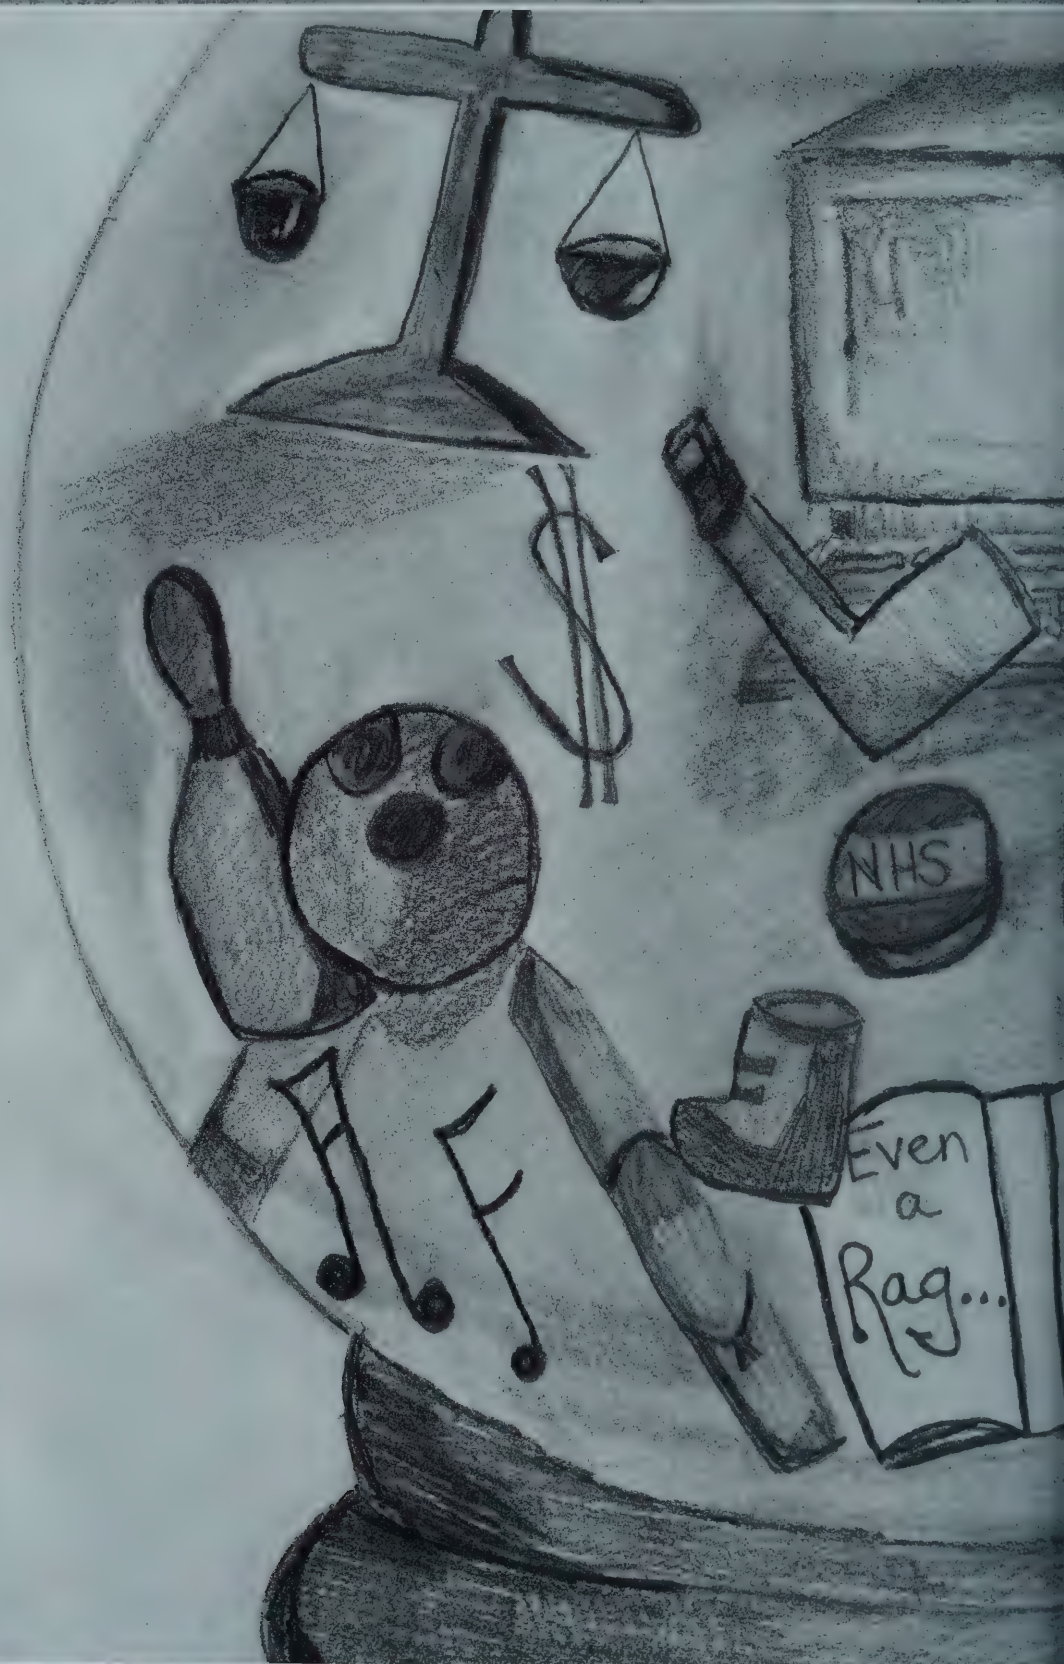

Mrs. Meg Doty
1946 - 1997

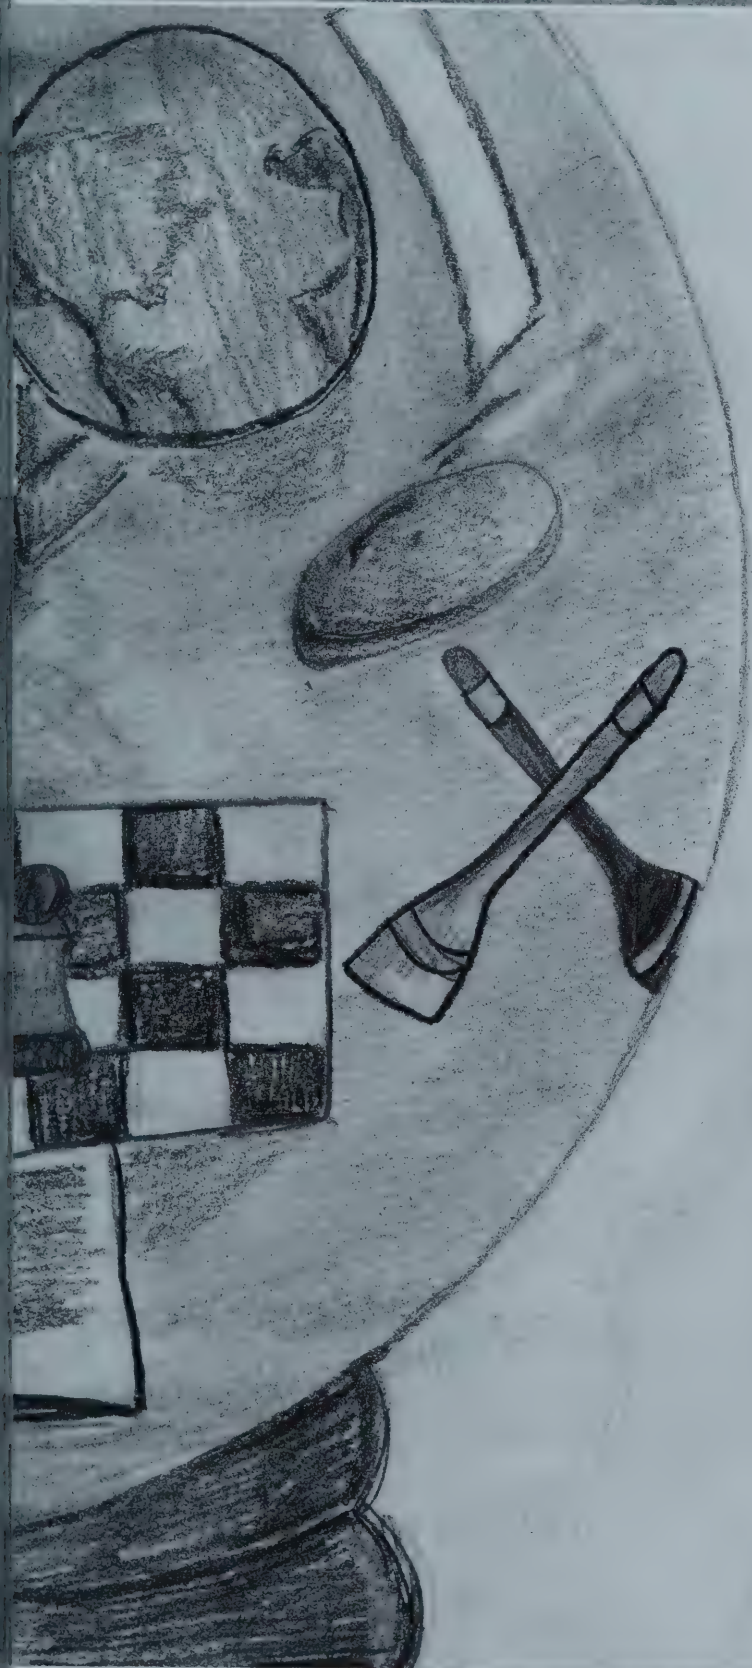

Every year, the students of the senior classes of NHS would come to know "Mrs. Doty - the College and Career Center Secretary." She filed and organized, but that was little in comparison to her other work. For years, she aided in sending thousands of successful graduates off to new adventures in colleges and careers. She was more than just the friendly smile that she always wore; she truly cared about each and every one of us.

She had a mysterious trick - she always knew who everyone was. When students walked into the office, she would know their name even if they had never met her before. I've actually had people come up to me and say, "How does she do that? How does she know who I am?" I guess it was just a bit of that Meg Doty Magic, the magic that made her the wonderful woman that she was. I have never seen another person with the patience that she had. She had the miraculous ability to assuage the fears of the most stressed out student, who was late with SAT money, a junior packet, or an application. She was a lovely woman, whose work will not be soon forgotten by her colleagues and friends.

Student Council

In the spirit of starting new traditions and maintaining old ones, this year the Student Council has organized several successful events. We kicked off the start of the school year with the jammin' spirit dance. This enthusiasm continued throughout the fall at the Halloween Dance and during the Thanksgiving festivities. Not only was the Pep Rally a major success (and the primary cause for our victory against Wellesley), but the Student Council was also excited to create a new Thanksgiving tradition, by hosting the first and very successful semi-formal Thanksgiving dance. Currently, we await the famed Hypnotist performance, a school-wide spelling bee, and the Spring Decade dance. Although focused on organizing exciting activities, the Student Council is equally devoted to exploring community service projects. No longer able to sponsor sandwich making (for fear of the Board of Health), we are hoping to bridge volunteer opportunities with the Charles River School. This activity might potentially offer all students a chance to help the community alongside their classmates. Lastly, a major aim of the Student Council has been to voice suggestions and concerns to our fearless leader (Mr. Madden). This year especially we have been working on alternative implementations of the Education Reform Bill. Our government committee is investigating how other schools in the area are dealing with the reform. In addition to the many activities they organize for their grade, class officers and representatives unite within the walls of the Fredie Center, seeking the best for their classmates. We have been extremely lucky to have the guidance of Mrs. Fleming and Mr. McGuire. The Student Council hopes to continue to have a successful year of fund-raising, service, and leadership.

Throughout the year, The Advocate editors and staff have worked hard to make the 1998 book better than any before at NHS. The addition of twenty new pages to the book helped us to include more members of the senior class as well as underclassmen. We also created new sports layouts, senior surveys, and dividers to update the look of the yearbook. After choosing the theme of "Reflections," we wanted to carry it from beginning to end. We accomplished this task by adding the reflections theme to the cover, title page, dividers, page numbers, and text of the book. We hope that you enjoy it. Although we lost our advisor of thirty-three years, Ellen M. Burke, the addition of Jonathan Cooke has brought a fresh perspective to The Advocate. He has become an invaluable asset, and his presence ensures the continued success of The Advocate. Although producing the yearbook can be frustrating and tedious at times, we have also made it a lot of fun. This year, the yearbook office became an afterschool meeting place and hangout for the editors and anyone else in search of food, soda, music, pictures to thumb through, or entertainment. We have spent countless hours laughing and listening to music on the infamous "stolen" radio. We hope that next year's staff will share our love for The Advocate and that you the readers will enjoy the book and "reflect" on your time here at Needham High.

Concert Chorale

After wowing Europe last April during its whirlwind 1997 tour, the Needham High School Concert Chorale made another strong showing this year under the experienced and skillful direction of Mrs. Faith Lueth. With a fresh batch of talented freshmen and upperclassmen newcomers added to the mix, the 33-member group experimented with diverse and challenging pieces. Highlights of the year included a concert with groups from Newton North, Lexington, and Brookline for a school superintendents' convention in Boston, as well as a rousing winter concert with a program that included classical, modern, and gospel pieces. However, the chorale's greatest accomplishment this year was its selection as the only high school group to sing at the state music festival. Individual members also found great success: eight of the 18 Massachusetts representatives in the 1998 Eastern U.S. Honors Choir came from NHS. The Chorale continued to serve as the high school's and the town's musical ambassador, performing at many assemblies, ceremonies, and celebrations. As time goes on, members hope that opportunities for concerts and travel will arise which will allow a continued increase in the Chorale's reputation for excellence.

The Hilltopper

The Hilltopper is Needham High School's monthly newspaper that features school events, student and teacher profiles, cartoons, photographs and controversial school issues. The 1997-1998 school year will go down in history as the year when the Hilltopper was renamed "the Swill-Mopper" by stellar journalist, Eli Weinberg. The Hilltopper editors-in-chief will always remember the undying efforts of their fellow staff members. Stock, with his stylistic and virtually error-free writing, produced Yogi, a masterpiece depicting NHS restroom facilities. The web master, dedicated to converting the articles into Java Script, praised his mentor, web wizard Nick Heinle, in the December issue. Roubas had an uncanny ability to find humor in any situation, especially in his anecdotes about Bubba. The Hilltopper turned over a new leaf this year with contributions like Lauren Prinn's "Dear L.P." column, a humorous series discussing realistic NHS dilemmas. Another key Hilltopper contributor, Gretchen Puttkammer, produced countless athletic profiles highlighting Needham's sports juggernauts. A final thanks is directed toward Mr. Stauffer, our advisor, Ms. Greene, our final editor and overseer, and Irene Wong, without whom the Hilltopper could not have existed. Thanks to the NHS English department, there is a solid crop of underclassmen prepared to take the Hilltopper's reigns next year and in years to come.

This year the Theatre Arts Society has taken the unprecedented step of creating a completely student-run production. After the performances of Tom Stoppard's comedic mystery The Real Inspector Hound, participants were proud of a production that they could call entirely their own. Rehearsals for the play took place daily for two months and demanded an enormous amount of dedication and hard work from the entire cast and crew. In addition to play rehearsal, the Theatre Arts Society also holds weekly meetings and goes on trips to see plays at local high schools and professional theatres. During weekly meetings, members participate in theatre games, activities, and improvisations to improve their acting skills and their ability to work in groups. The society attempts to create a comfortable and respectful environment where members can feel free to experiment and take risks. The students involved are a talented, motivated, and creative bunch who, we are confident, will continue to bring drama to a new level at Needham High.

"To say that it is without pace, point, focus, interest, drama, wit, or originality is to say simply that it ..." is not T.A.S.

Gay Straight Alliance

The Gay/Straight Alliance was founded in 1995 by Scott McDonald and Joan Clowes, three years after former Governor Weld added sexual orientation to public harassment policy. This policy is used by all public high schools in Massachusetts. Today, the ever popular McDonald heads the G/SA. The alliance was founded to increase the awareness of homophobia in students and teachers at NHS and to combat this homophobia. In the beginning, the posters announcing meetings were ripped down or covered with epithets. Today, posters are not defaced but much remains for future students to do. A dance was held last March at the First Parish UU Church, and members of the G/SA from as far as the Cape and Worcester met each other. Last May, members attended the Youth Pride March in support of gay youth. The fall members of the Alliance hosted a movie night featuring gay issues. The Gay/Straight Alliance co-sponsored AIDS Awareness Day with the Social Awareness Committee and SADD on December 18, 1997. Red AIDS ribbons were distributed to all students, and a lesbian woman with AIDS spoke to interested students after school. The success of the Alliance as a new club is under appreciated.

The Multicultural Club, only in its second year of existence, was created to celebrate and recognize the diversity and racial differences we have at Needham High School. In addition to bringing in guest speakers and holding open discussions, the Multicultural Club deals with prejudices and racial issues in our school. The Multicultural Club, under the leadership of Ms. Mass and MS. Nesin is composed of a diverse mix of students in all classes. Highlights this year included the participation of more than thirty new students in the cultural affinity groups, an intriguing civil rights presentation by the Project Hip-Hop, and wonderful open discussion on interracial dating. The Multicultural Club has enjoyed great participation and interest from its members and is continuing to grow.

Ultimate Frisbee

The Needham High School Ultimate Frisbee Club was officially founded in the fall of 1996. Our first season had many highlights (daily action-packed competition, playing semi-naked on Memorial Field), along with a few less enjoyable but equally memorable moments (Jay Dickson diving headlong into the benches.) At the end of the school year, we bid fond adieu to the club's seniors, except Mike Fitzgerald. Though our summer nighttime practices were broken up by the Babson Police, we still entered this fall with feverish frisbee fervor. As we continued to battle goose droppings, the club was strengthened by the recruitment of freshmen and was inspired by the gutsy performance of Jeremy Raelin who, despite being too injured to compete in cross-country, toughed through the pain to play adequately. Each Wednesday and Friday afternoon was filled with fun frisbee combat. Additionally, we held our first Alumni Game and, on one farewell late autumn day, our first interscholastic contest resulted in the mutilation of the Dover-Sherborn frisbee team. As for the future, we look to continue our scintillating afternoon action, to have more girls play than just Kerry Coyne, and to extend our current undefeated record into further into further interscholastic competition.

"Once a dream, now a reality, soon a memory."

If You Had An Opportunity To Create Your Dream Home

Surely you would include acres of wooded land, an indoor swimming pool, you would want to have a lovely garden and you might even include a library...

ideally, you would have health care at your fingertips.

As you can see this home was created for you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special Thanks to:

- The Student Council for their very generous donation that allowed us to expand the color section of the yearbook, as well as for providing us with afterschool entertainment now and then,
- Jim at Westwood Studios for taking many of the photographs included in this yearbook, especially the team and activities pictures and the sports candid,
- Mr. Cooke, our new advisor, for being willing to learn, help out, proof, and catch the misspelling of "Advocate,"
- Ms. Burke for taking photographs and supporting our work,
- Mrs. Guiney, Mrs. Somers, and Mrs. Hunt for accommodating our last minute demands for information,
- Tracey Gaither for putting the book together and putting up with our disregard of the proof deadlines,
- John Neister for his help and encouragement in realizing our ideas, as well as some technical support,
- The many businesses that purchased advertisements and parents that donated the money that allowed us to pay for this yearbook,
- Moirra Lundell, Annie Minard, Jamie Montipoli, and Michelle Leonard who created the dividers for the yearbook,
- The many faculty members who gave us quotes about the Senior class for the Faculty Section,
- Mrs. Greene for all her help in organizing the yearbook and her photographic donations,
- Mrs. Fleming for allowing us to take over the Freddie Center afterschool, as well as being a proofer and a friend,
- The yearbook staff for all their help with selling yearbooks, calling senior parents, and correcting proofs,
- The many club leaders and advisors who provided articles and pictures for our organizations section,
- Paul for all those period two studies, my picture sorter, and proofer,
- Ashley for never getting the blurbs in on time,
- Liz for her generous chair donation,
- Michelle for her MacGyver technique,
- Rick for stealing the radio
- The administration for our nonexistent phone line,
- Underclassmen student council members for storing candy in the janitor's closet,
- Noah, Ashana, and Jon for eating our food every day afterschool.
